Appearance:

1. Special Civil Application No. 6183 of 2004

MS KRISHNA U MISHRA for Petitioner No. 1

RULE SERVED for Respondent No. 1-2

MR RC KODEKAR, AGP for Respondent No. 3

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 30/09/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The detenu has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985

(hereinafter referred to as `the Act of 1985') by the order dated 20-4-2004 passed by the Police Commissioner, Ahmedabad City and he has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, he cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. I have heard learned advocate for the petitioner at length and learned AGP for the respondents. I have also perused the material on record. Learned advocate for the petitioner has concentrated his arguments only on the point of delay in passing the detention order. It is submitted that four prohibition cases have been registered against the detenu and last being Amraiwadi Police Station Prohi.C.R.No.5050 of 2004 on 4-3-2004 while the order of detention was passed on 20-4-2004 and hence, there is a delay of one and half months in passing the order. Learned AGP has fairly admitted the same. Learned counsel for the petitioner has relied upon a judgment delivered by this Court reported in 1997(1) G.L.H. page 381 in the case of Elesh Nandubhai Patel Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad City and Ors. more particularly at para 21 which reads as under:

> "There appears to be some substance in the contention of the petitioner that these two unregistered cases have been referred only with a view to cover up the gap or to give life to a stale case. This unexplained delay makes a ground of detention not proximate, vitiating the order of detention itself. If I am to buttress my findings, I would say the reference may be made to the decision of the Supreme Court in Anand Prakash V. State of U.P. reported in AIR 1990 SC 516 and Pradeep Nilkanth Vs. S. Ramamurthy reported in 1993(2) Suppl. SCC 61."

4. It appears that last offence registered against the petitioner was on 4-3-2004 and order of detention was passed on 20-4-2004 based on this offence and hence, there is a delay in passing the order. Though affidavit has been filed, no satisfactory explanation has been offered for the delay caused in passing the order of detention. Therefore, in view of the above judgment relied upon by the learned advocate for the petitioner, the order of detention is illegal and the same cannot be sustained. Since the petitioner succeeds only on this point, learned advocate for the petitioner did not press any other points.

5. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 20-4-2004 passed against the detenu Rameshbhai Mansinh Thakore is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly. Direct service is permitted.
